NEW ROAD PROVES MENACE

Twenty-one Accidents in Twenty Days Mark Wilson's Corner as Most Dangerous Spot in This Vicinity—Local People Injured on Den Rock Road

Miss Anita Biery of 45 Salem street is suffering from a possible fracture of the lower jaw and the loss of several teeth as the result of an automobile accident which occurred on the Den Rock road near the Lawrence riding park about half past nine last night.

The car in which Miss Biery, together with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Biery, were riding toward Lawrence, was struck by a truck filled with youngsters out on a joy ride. Young Salvatore Cristallo, aged thirteen, is said to have started all the trouble when he stole his father's truck from in front of the store at 44 Common street. He had not proceeded far into the country when he ran into a Dodge car owned by James Costello of 143 Prospect street, Lawrence, and then crashed into the Biery car. Both machines were badly damaged and young Cristallo suffered a fracture of the arm as well as other injuries. He will appear in juvenile court to answer for his misdeeds.

The Biery car was towed to the Andover garage and Mr. and Mrs. Biery and Miss Anita are at their home on Salem street.

Automobile Accident at Carter's Corner

Corra Ananigan of 460 Ferry street, Malden, was badly cut about the face and legs by broken glass, and the cars of Milo H. Gould of Gould road, and Leonard A. Kishishoff of 51 Cypress street, Watertown, considerably damaged shortly before 11 o'clock Saturday evening in a collision at Carter's Corner, one mile south of Andover Hill, on the Reading road.

Both cars were travelling in the direction of Boston, according to the report of the Andover police, when the Gould Dodge touring car overtook the other machine, a Ford, and attempted to pass. Gould told the police that the Ford suddenly slowed down and that before he could turn out he crashed into the car ahead. The Ford was thrown up against a tree at the roadside.

The woman who was riding with Kishishoff was rushed to Andover where she was treated by Dr. John Hartigan. She was later removed to her home.

Twenty-one Mishaps in Twenty Days at Same Bad Corner

The twenty-first accident in the last twenty days at Wilson's Corner took place at half past six Monday evening, and resulted in the death early Tuesday morning of Thomas F. Connors, sixty, a Salem bricklayer.

Harris W. Spaulding of 750 Summer street, Haverhill, driving a Cadillac Victoria coupe, collided with a Hudson coupe owned by Morris Cohen of Melvin street, Lawrence, and driven by Ali King of Marble street, Lawrence, in which Connors was a passenger.

Both machines were badly damaged and had to be towed to a garage. Connors was the only one hurt. He was taken to the Lawrence General Hospital with a fracture

SUPPER AND INSTALLATION

Courteous Circle Opens Winter Season with Supper Held in the South Church Vestry

Courteous Circle of The King's Daughters of the South Congregational church installed officers at a meeting held Monday evening in the vestry. A delicious supper was served at 6.30, followed by the regular business meeting. Mrs. John Avery was in charge of the supper arrangements and she was ably assisted by Mrs. Harold Austin, Mrs. John Jenkins, Mrs. P. J. Look, Mrs. Arthur Hall, Mrs. T. Hall, Mrs. E. Burke Thornton, Mrs. Herbert Russell, Mrs. Franklin, and Mrs. Joseph Blunt. The appetizing menu consisted of fruit cup, veal loaf, salad, coffee, rolls, ice cream and pie.

Mrs. F. Homer Foster was installing officer. Miss Ethel A. Hitchcock was installed for the coming year as leader, succeeding Mrs. V. D. Harrington. Other officers are: Mrs. Joseph A. Higginson, vice leader; Mrs. Harold Austin, recording secretary; Mrs. Alexander H. Wadsworth, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William H. Gibson, treasurer; Miss Grace A. Jenkins, auditor. The finance committee comprises Miss Ethel A. Hitchcock, Miss Grace A. Jenkins, and Mrs. William H. Gibson.

Following the installation ceremony the annual reports of the retiring officers were read. An outline of the work that is to be pursued in the coming year was also given by the installed officers.

Monday evening at the regular meeting of Indian Ridge Rebekah lodge, the annual election of officers took place. This year has been a short one, officers being elected earlier than usual. The following were chosen to fill the executive chairs: Noble Grand, Mrs. Edward Emslie; vice grand, Mrs. Edmund Dunwoody; recording secretary, Mrs. Elmer Conkey; financial secretary, Mrs. Ralph Berry; treasurer, Mrs. William H. Faulkner; representatives to the Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. James Skea, Mrs. Samuel Wormald, Miss Charlotte Hill; trustee for three years, W. H. Faulkner.

Following the business meeting, an entertainment in observance of the 74th anniversary of the Rebekah degree was held, consisting of dances by Gertrude Conkey, Isabel Mackenzie and Ruth Davis, and ukulele selections by a trio, consisting of Helen Saunders, Doris Manning, and Catherine Croy. Refreshments were served.

The installation of officers will take place in the Fraternal hall Monday evening, October 5. Miss Florence R. Ladd of Haverhill will be the installing officer.

ENDEAVOR ACTIVITIES

C. E. Societies of Local Churches Elect Officers and Plan Program of Events for Coming Season

The Christian Endeavor societies of the different churches in town have begun their year's work and are planning attractive programs for the future. Following are the reports from the different organizations during the past week:

The executive committee of the Andover Christian Endeavor Union, held a meeting Monday evening at the home of the Union secretary, Miss Dorothy Trott. Plans for the year's work were discussed and will be submitted to the members of the Union for their approval at the first union meeting to be held Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock, with the Baptist society.

Miss Dorothy Trott and Miss Edna Albers, delegates to the Northfield Conference, will give their reports. Reports of the International convention held in Portland, Oregon, in July will be given. Reports of the Union Workers' Conference held in Worcester last Saturday and Sunday, will be submitted by President James R. Carter and William Barnett, who attended the conference.

Other regular meetings of the union will be held as follows: November, North Andover; January, Free church, union social; March, South church; June, West church. These meetings with the exception of the June meeting will be held the last Monday evening of the month.

The executive committee is to recommend a very attractive and interesting program to members Monday evening, and it is requested that all members attend.

Baptist C. E. Notes

The new executive committee of the Baptist Christian Endeavor society for the coming year held its first business meeting Tuesday evening. Elaborate plans for the installation of officers were presented and voted upon. Arrangements were made to hold a joint meeting with the Baptist church Sunday evening, September 27, at seven o'clock. The society hopes that it will prove a very impressive service as nothing has been left undone to make this most interesting occasion. The society cordially invites all the congregations of the different churches as well as that of the Baptist church to be present.

The installation of officers will be in charge of James C. Purinton of Beverly, Abbot Foster, Henry Grimes and Mr. Simmons of the Essex County Union. Special music has been provided with Mr. Arnold presiding at the organ.

The chairman and members of the different committees were then appointed and are as follows:

ESSEX COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL NOTES

Instructor Stearns at Vegetable Growers' Convention

Instructor Carlton M. Stearns of Essex Agricultural School is attending the 17th annual convention of the Vegetable Growers' Association of America which is being held this week at Providence, R. I. As the Association meets yearly in different sections of the country it is a privilege to have them meet so near Boston and many local Market Gardeners will take advantage of this opportunity by taking in one day at least of the very interesting program. The program includes several trips to the local markets; tour of the Boston and Arlington district as guests of the Boston Market Gardeners' Association and a visit to the Experiment Station of Waltham. The speakers include Dr. L. C. Corbett, U.S.D.A., on "World Production and World Markets for Vegetables," Dean Watts of Penn. State College on "Legal and Ethical Aspects of Sunday Selling on Roadside Markets" and many others.

Judging contests, including a Junior contest for boys and girls under 18, are new features this year. Celery grown in different sections of the country will be exhibited together with other vegetable displays. Aside from the benefit derived from the program one values the meeting of vegetable growers from distant sections of the country.

Haverhill Boys at the Market Garden Field Station

Brooks Dwyer and Harold Wilson of Haverhill, graduates of the Essex County Agricultural School in the Class of 1924, are now employed on the Market Garden Field Station, at Waltham. The field station is carried on by the Mass. Agricultural College for experimental work in the growing of vegetables. The boys secured positions when the Station was located at Lexington and helped in the transfer and establishing of the new station at Waltham. Both of these boys are doing good work. Dwyer works in the greenhouse taking care of the heating, ventilating, and watering. He keeps complete records on the growth and production of various crops, being chief assistant to Professor Victor A. Tiedjen, who has charge of the research work.

Harold Wilson is still employed in the reconstruction work of the station but also does some gardening and greenhouse work. He enjoys mechanical work and many odd jobs involving mechanical skill are passed over to him.

These boys are doing excellent work in their chosen fields and illustrate again what a wide range of opportunity is offered to those trained in vocational agriculture.

Last Year's Pullets Kept Over

During the summer the non-layers have been gradually eliminated from the pens and those left are still doing well in egg production. About 100 of the birds from each of the breeds will be kept as the basis for the next year's breeding work. R. I. Reds, Barred Rocks, and White Leghorns. The several hundred birds left will be kept for the students to kill and dress in the fall.

Cockerels Growing Well

The young male birds are beginning to shape up well now and there are about 400 of these from which the breeders, to be used by the School for its work next spring, will be selected, and also those which are for sale. The greater number are Rhode Island Reds of the Parmer Strain; with Barred Rocks and Leghorns in addition.

Mangels for the Layers

The poultry division has secured from the Farm Division a fine field of mangel-wurtzel beets, and as there are more than can be used this winter, they have started to feed them each day to the layers. By starting now, the benefit of the succulent leafy tops is obtained. Later cabbage will be fed and the balance of the beets kept for winter use. The Market Garden division is growing the cabbage for the poultry plant.

Andover Theological Seminary to Close Its Doors

A decision by the full bench of the supreme court yesterday, voiding a plan adopted in 1922 for close affiliation between Andover Theological Seminary and the Harvard Divinity School, marks the end of the Andover institution, a career which has found prominent place in the religious history of New England.

This is the undivided opinion of nearly all in close touch with the case, but more than this, it is possible that as a result of the opinion handed down yesterday by Chief Justice Rugg the teaching of theology at Harvard may be seriously curtailed during the coming college year. Many even hazard the opinion that the effect may be more far-reaching, and may have a deleterious effect on the Harvard institution for some time.

In any event the Andover school is through, it is generally conceded. Some time ago, when, after the visitors of the seminary had sought to restrain the trustees from combining with the Harvard school, the latter testified in the hearing before Master Fred Field that unless the affiliation was effected, the Andover school would have to close its doors.

This state of affairs is brought about by the fact that while the funds of the school were sufficient in past years to meet all expenses, they are not now adequate, in the face of greatly increased salaries and general rise in costs.

In addition to this, when the school was moved to Cambridge in 1908 the school building was erected as a cost of several hundred thousand dollars. This in itself was a drain on the treasury, but where the faculty has been content under a salary schedule ranging around $4000 in Andover, in the face of salaries double that amount paid to professors teaching kindred subjects in Cambridge, much discontent arose, and the trustees were faced with a critical situation when the need of raising salaries arose.

Prior to the proposed affiliation with the Harvard school the trustees undertook what they testified was their last resort. They attempted, by asking subscriptions, to raise additional endowment. This effort was a failure, and the affiliation scheme followed.

The quandary which faces officials of the Harvard divinity school is this: After the arrival in Cambridge of the Andover institution they gave up their old quarters, Divinity Hall. This building has now been converted into a dormitory, and since the court ruling prevents further affiliation between the two institutions, the Harvard school finds itself without a home at the very outset of the school year. Dean Sperry of the Harvard school is away at present, but it is expected that an official statement on the situation will be forthcoming on his return.

The findings of Master Field were upheld in Justice Rugg's opinion, although it was felt they did not bear on the aspect of the case on which the supreme court based its decision. The court agreed with the master that the difference between the religious tenets taught by the two schools was yearly growing less distinct, but found that it still was distinct, and in any event, as long as fundamentally the creeds were at odds, it was illegal for the two schools to combine.

Justice Rugg wrote that had the clause founding Andover stated that it was simply for the purpose of educating for the clergy orthodox Christian ministers, the change proposed by the trustees would have been legal.

As a matter of fact, however, the purposes of Andover Seminary were defined as being the teaching of only specific phases of orthodox Christian creeds which were based on the Westminster Assembly Shorter Catechism and the so-called "Andover Creed." Because of this express desire of the founders of the school funds, any affiliation with a school founded for the teaching of alien creed was found illegal, and the seminary visitors were supported throughout.

While such decision may work hardship in some cases, such as those concerned with an educational institution, the finding of the court results in very definitely safeguarding charitable trust funds in particular. In short it means that trust funds established for a definite purpose by an individual or individuals cannot be converted into any other channels, however closely akin they may be. This was well instanced in the recent decision denying the right of the scientific schools of Harvard and Technology to unite, and which was centered about the purposes for which the Gordon McKay endowment was given.

The upshot of the present situation as regards Andover, it is expected, will be that the trustees will petition the supreme court, under the doctrine of cy pres, for decision as to what purposes their funds, belonging to a charity no longer able to continue under the provisions which gave it life, shall be put. This means that the assets of the school will be turned over to that school similar in aim and purpose, which is shown to be most deserving and needy of the funds. There are six such schools at present mentioned in connection with such an eventuality. They are the theological institutions at Yale, Newton Center, Boston University, Hartford, Bangor, and the Gordon School of Theology of Boston.

Attorneys for both sides, visitors and trustees, were interviewed yesterday by The Herald. Harold S. Davis, counsel for the latter, said no statement of any value could be made until a meeting of the trustees was called, which would probably be in the near future. Thomas Weston, counsel for the visitors, felt it a victory for his side throughout, but stressed the fact that to him the greatest point of the decision was the added security it gave to a much larger field than that of theology alone, in other words, to perpetuate and make certain that charitable funds as a whole should be guarded to the purpose first intended.

The Andover school had its inception as a part of Phillips Andover Academy, when, in 1778, Samuel and John Phillips deeded a certain property to trustees for creation of a free public school. The theological school was really founded in 1808, when additional funds brought the endowments to over $100,000, and the board of visitors was formed. In 1816 the Harvard divinity school was formed by Unitarians, largely to counteract the teachings and influence of the other school.—The Boston Herald, Sept. 22, 1925.

Motorist Resists Arrest

George Leighton of Lowell road was fined $75 in local police court Monday afternoon when convicted of a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. Leighton was arrested Saturday night at 9.30 by Patrolmen Dannels and Richardson and Motorcycle Officer David Gillespie, at a point near Shawheen village. Leighton pleaded guilty to the charge.

According to the police, Leighton was driving through Shawheen in a zig-zag course and was ordered to stop by Officer Dannels, who was doing traffic duty at the time. After being informed of his arrest, Leighton attempted to break away.

Francis Roche, who was arraigned on a charge of stealing oil, was found not guilty and discharged. Judge Colver J. Stone presided.

Old Home Day to Be Held in Wilmington

The historical events that led to the setting off of Wilmington from the towns of Reading and Woburn will be commemorated at Old Home Day ceremonies to be held in Wilmington, October 3, on which day a general home-coming of former residents and their descendants is planned in connection with an observance of the anniversary of the founding of the Wilmington Congregational Church. It is expected that several hundred old-time residents or their descendants will return for the reunion, which is to occupy two days.

The exercises strictly pertaining to the church anniversary will be held Sunday, October 4, in the church itself and will be of a union nature. The civic programme on Saturday will be entirely non-denominational, the clergy and leading members of all the churches in Wilmington having expressed the greatest sympathy with the celebration, in arranging which the Rev. Arthur A. Simmons, pastor of the Congregational Church, has been the moving spirit, being assisted by many citizens, both in and out of his congregation.

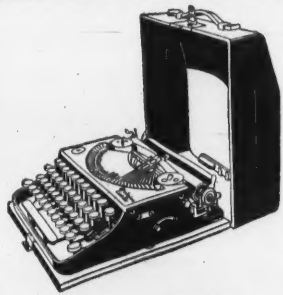

A parade, with floats and characters emblematic of leading events in the town life, will start at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Grange Hall and will proceed to Wilmington Depot and return, using Church street, Main street and Middlesex avenue. Immediately following the parade the green between the church and the town hall will be used as a stage to present a pageant in five episodes illustrative of the origin and early history of the town. These will be: I, Indian Encampment; II, Killing of the Last Bear, in which the gun used in that exploit will be displayed; III, Canal Boat of the old Middlesex Canal; IV, Discovery of the Baldwin Apple; V, Early Settler's Home.

Following the pageant Mrs. Nellie Friend of North Wilmington will give a talk in the church, her subject being "Prepare ye the way," a message in child psychology. An old-fashioned supper will be served in the church vestry Saturday evening, and this, like the luncheon served there and under the great pines of the church grounds Sunday noon, will afford an opportunity for old-timers to fraternize with the townfolk and renew old associations.

Former pastors of the church are expected to assist in the Sunday exercises. The Rev. Walter H. Rollins, who occupied the pulpit from 1900 to 1906, and now superintendent of Congregational Churches for the District of New York, will deliver the address Sunday morning, and at 4 p.m. Organist Gerald Frazee will give an organ recital. The Christian Endeavor chapter will install its officers Sunday evening. The Rev. William F. Preston, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Wilmington, will take part in the exercises Sunday afternoon and with members of his church will participate in the parade and other activities of Saturday. The M. E. Chapel at South Tewksbury, a branch of the M. E. Church of Wilmington, will take part in the programme of both days and may have a float in the parade.

Wilmington was erected into a town by act of the General Court passed in 1730 with a proviso that made it obligatory that a church be organized and a minister settled within three years in order that the charter should be operative. Accordingly the Congregational Church was "embodied" September 25, 1733. The township itself was formed from territory that originally was part of Lynn and Charlestown, although at the time the town was founded these territories constituted parts of Reading and Woburn respectively.

Churches of various denominations in Reading, Wakefield, Stoneham, Woburn, Burlington, Lynn and Charlestown and other neighboring places have been invited to join in the coming observance.

Looking Back Twenty-five Years

Miss Sarah Poor of Chestnut street will soon close her house and take rooms at Mrs. J. A. Richardson's on the same street.

T. E. Rhodes has been enjoying a much-needed vacation of three weeks in Maine, visiting in Lewiston, Wayne, Leeds, and other places.

Travel is dropping off a little over the Lawrence & Reading road as people are finding open space more like refrigerators than anything else these chill September days and nights.

Chief Frye drew four jurors to attend the United States district court to be held in Boston. The jurors drawn were Michael T. Welch, William H. Hackett, Charles H. Kibbee, and J. Warren Moor.

Judge George H. Poor, John L. Smith, and A. S. Manning attended the annual reunion of the 35th Massachusetts Regiment at Lexington.

At a meeting of the board of registrars held at the Town House six new names were added to the voting list: William Piddington, Willard B. Cates, Ralph W. Coleman, Arthur R. Morse, James A. Richards, and Reuben A. Eastwood.

Henry P. Noyes, who has carried on the furniture business in Andover for many years, is closing out his stock preparatory to leaving town. Mr. Noyes will settle somewhere on the South Shore, and will act as treasurer of a stock company organized by his nephew to carry on the hay and grain, wood and coal, and hardware business.

The Theological Seminary opened Wednesday with about the same number of students as last year.

Mrs. Annie Sawyer Downes returned to her home in Andover Wednesday much improved in health, having received a great deal of benefit from her vacation at Pine Point, Maine.

Cards announcing the marriage of Dr. William F. Graves, son of Professor Graves of Phillips Academy, to Miss Alice Myrick Chase of Boston, to occur in Arlington street church on October 10, have been received in town.

Robert McCurdy, son of Matthew S. McCurdy, instructor at Phillips Academy, has accepted the position of teacher of modern languages at the Brooklyn Latin School. Mr. McCurdy was graduated from Phillips Academy in 1896 and from Yale in 1900, is only twenty years of age.

Phillips Academy opened with about 190 new boys entering, the largest number since 1895. The appointment of Alfred E. Stearns to the registrarship is a popular one at the Academy, both with the faculty and the student body. He is a graduate of the academy, class of 1890, and of Amherst, 1894. He took a three years' course at the Theological Seminary here, receiving his degree last spring. Last year he succeeded Professor Churchill as a teacher in elocution at the academy.

To the athletic life of the school his efforts as athletic director have brought new honors and new successes, not only by his thorough knowledge of the sports, but also through his great popularity with all the students. George Converse Fiske, B.A., has been chosen as teacher of Greek and Latin, to take the work of William H. Terrill who has gone to Brewster Free Academy at Wolfeboro, N. H., where he will be at the head of his department. Another new instructor is Roger S.

There will be a number of Andover entrants in the annual horse show which will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Methuen State Armory and on Griffin Field which adjoins it. Mrs. Wilbert J. Smith of Elm street has entered Beauty Lady in the ladies' saddle class, gentlemen's saddle class, ladies' jumping class, gentlemen's jumping class, and high jump. Joey, owned by Jerome W. Cross, is entered in the ladies' saddle class and Blackbird in the gentlemen's saddle class.

Another horse to be entered in the ladies' saddle class is Nancy, owned by Carl H. Stevens. Lightning, also owned by Mr. Stevens, will be entered in the gentlemen's saddle class and in the gentlemen's jumping class.

Shrapnel is entered by Major Kellogg Boynton in the gentlemen's saddle class and the free-for-all race and the race by horses 15-2 and under entered from Methuen. In the mixed jumping class, Playboy will be entered.

Judges of Saddle Classes—Mrs. Frank H. Paige, Major William McCleave, U.S.A., Dr. J. H. Sparks.

Judges of Jumping Classes, Races and Military Events—Lt. Col. Frank J. Killilea, M.N.G., Major William McCleave, U.S.A., Dr. J. H. Sparks, Capt. Howard E. Camp, U.S.A.

Starter—Capt. Edward D. Sirois, M.N.G. Announcer—1st Lt. William D. Miller, M.N.G. Scorers—Sgt. George Jagger, Joseph Culen, Edward J. Wade, Jr.

The events will be run off as listed below. 1—Battery C going into action and firing 16 rounds.

2—Pony saddle race. For children 15 years and under riding ponies and small horses.

3—Cross stirrup race. This race will go on the track while No. 2 is being judged in the ring.

4—Rough riding, Edward F. Mullen. This exhibition will go on while No. 2 is being judged in the ring.

5—Ladies' saddle class.

6—Roman riding. Two horses. This race will go on the track while No. 5 is being judged in the ring.

7—Gentlemen's saddle class.

Peck, Yale 1901. Mr. Peck graduated in the first ten at Yale in a class of 325 men. He will teach mathematics and physics. This year brought about the opening of the new Bancroft dormitory which is located on Phillips street. Thirty-four young men and four teachers can be accommodated there and already every place is taken. The institution is beginning its 123rd year of existence. Dr. Bancroft's 28th year in the principalship, and Matthew S. McCurdy's 28th year in connection with Phillips.

Under the auspices of Senior Y.P.S.C.E. of the South church a lawn party and flower exhibit was held on the lawn Friday afternoon from half past three until six o'clock. The exhibition of flowers and plants was especially good, the table being in charge of Misses Alice McTernan and Dorothy Logan. Miss Edith Valpey and Miss Rena Hemmaway presided at the potted plant table. A good business was carried on at the candy table in charge of Misses Lucy Mason, Grace Cheever and Sallie Pratt. The preserves were cared for by Miss Edith Hunter. Lemonade was dispensed by Misses Laura Farnham and Ethel Hemmaway. The lawn party was given in an interest that money might be raised to purchase flowers for the church during the winter months and nearly twenty dollars was realized.

William H. Gray of Salem street, the veteran printer of this place, will observe his 80th birthday anniversary on Monday. Mr. Gray was born in England and was employed in London at the Queen's printer for about twenty years, starting as an apprentice and working up. He came to America, worked three or four years at the University Press in Cambridge, and then, at the solicitation of Warren F. Draper, came to Andover where for forty years he worked at the Andover Press.

The hearing on the petition of the Lawrence and Reading road, which has asked for a route to the square through either Main street or Central and School streets, was held in the lower town hall before the full board of selectmen, with Chairman Goldsmith presiding. How great an interest was taken in the petition was shown by the large gathering of representative Andover citizens at the hearing and by the emphatic manner of discussing ways and means of bringing the cars to the square without coming down School street and with no additional rails on Main street. Among the speakers were Col. Charles F. Woodward of the Lawrence and Reading street railway, Col. Ripley of the Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill street railway, John N. Cole, William Marland, Barnett Rogers, Charles W. Clark, John L. Brewster, Rev. Frederic Palmer, Warren F. Draper, William M. Reed, Prof. E. C. Smythe, Walter Buck, and the town counsel, William Odlin.

The honor list for the spring term at Phillips Academy included the names of several Andover boys. First list, no subject below 82 and at least 92 in half the number of hours: Joseph Lawrence Burns, Philip Weeks Foster, James Greenleaf Fuller, Charles Pomeroy Otis. Second list, no subject below 75 and an average of 85: Edward Batton Chapin, Fred Lewis Collins, Herbert Paul Onasch, Horace Whiton Paine, John Husfeldt Soehrens.

John McCormack to Sing in Lowell

It will interest local people very much to learn that John McCormack, the great Irish tenor, will give a recital in the Lowell Auditorium on Thursday evening, October 22. Announcement of the concert was made this week and coupled with it is the statement that the Lowell concert will be one of four given this season in New England.

McCormack is the greatest drawing card in the world today and demands for his concerts run into hundreds every year. Lowell, because of the great capacity of its Auditorium, has been able to secure a booking of the tenor. Boston gets two dates and Hartford the fourth. McCormack is sailing for the Far East next spring and as a result will only be available for New England dates this fall.

Gardner's Temple of Music will continue its policy of serving the public by arranging to have a supply of tickets for the McCormack recital.

Abbot Academy Notes

Abbot Academy opened last Thursday morning with an enrollment of 181 students, a number slightly larger than last year, owing to the fact that there are a few more day pupils.

On Sunday evening the weekly service in Abbot Hall was led by Miss Bailey. The old girls entertained the new girls at a dance which was held in Davis Hall on Tuesday evening.

Trips to the North Shore and to Lexington and Concord on Wednesday were much enjoyed. Dr. Edmund Burnham of Taunton will conduct the service next Sunday evening in Davis Hall at 7.30.

Arteries of Traffic

The large increases in automobile registration each year mean more and more traffic on the road. This creates some difficult traffic problems in Andover, for we are situated on one of the most travelled roads in this state. It has been estimated that over eighty percent of the cars going through here are from out of town.

Perhaps the most dangerous piece of road from Boston to Lawrence is to be found on Main street from the square to Stimpson's bridge. Here a driver going to Lawrence finds himself in a narrow, rough road, bordered on his right by trolley tracks and confronted with a narrow railroad bridge set at an angle to the road. The long down-hill grade further increases the difficulties. One coming toward Andover, faced with a long hill, has the tendency to drive faster than usual. But he soon finds that traffic in the other direction is forcing him into a low gutter at his right, which is very dangerous, especially for heavily loaded trucks. The bridge, trolley cars and curves also serve to complicate the situation.

The cure for this difficulty lies mainly in widening this road. But such a proposition is far too expensive for this town to undertake alone. The Andover Chamber of Commerce has already sponsored a bill, introduced in the Legislature, asking the State to bring about this improvement, but as yet nothing has been done about it. We feel sure our Chamber will continue to exert all the influence it can to bring this about.

But if the widening of Main street, which is the most logical thing to do, seems out of the question at present, there still remains another, although less direct method of relieving the congestion on dangerous Main street. That is to send part of the constantly increasing number of autoists to Shawshen and Lawrence out High street and along Burnham road.

This route at present needs resurfacing or complete rebuilding. But despite the holes in it, motorists are using it more and more to avoid Main street.

Two things are needed to make this road fit to carry much of the through traffic: the road should be reconditioned, and the Boston and Maine bridge over this road needs widening. Since Burnham road goes into the excellent piece of macadam in Shawshen, the expense of resurfacing the uneven section would not be so great and this town could afford to do it. As for the railroad bridge, the Boston and Maine should be forced to cooperate in widening the underpass. As a result we would have an excellent artery of traffic leading from Andover to Shawshen.

To improve such a road would not necessarily mean duplication in the event that Main street were built over. If Main street were renewed in the near future, traffic is increasing so rapidly that both roads would be found necessary to handle the traffic efficiently.

The Burnham road situation is up to Andover exclusively. It would be well for the town therefore to investigate this question at once in order that some constructive plan may be put into effect in the immediate future.

It is encouraging to note that a hearing was held this week at which representatives of the towns in this county were present to describe the road needs of their communities. Such hearings should be followed up until something definite results.

Knights Choose Physician for Grand Knight's Chair

Dr. Jeremiah J. Daly was elected grand knight of Andover Council, 1078, Knights of Columbus, at the annual business meeting, nomination and election of officers held in the K. of C. hall last week. Dr. Daly succeeds Frank S. McDonald in the position. Other officers elected were: Deputy grand knight, John Cussey; chancellor, John L. Dugan; recording secretary, Joseph McCarthy; financial secretary, Timothy Mahoney; treasurer, Augustine P. Sullivan; advocate, Clarence A. Buckley; warden, Henry Dolan; inside guard, Patrick Beston; outside guard, Jeremiah O'Connor; delegates to state convention, Dr. J. J. Daly and Frank S. McDonald; alternates, John H. McDonald, Timothy J. Mahoney.

Frank McBride, secretary-treasurer of the Carnival committee, read an itemized report of that undertaking. It is hoped that when all outstanding bills from the Carnival are settled, a profit of $1600 will be shown. Conditions were unfavorable this year for the annual three-day event, but under the circumstances the workers accomplished a great deal.

It was voted at the meeting to purchase a new bulletin board, which is to be erected in the hall and upon which all notices of business pertaining to the council are to be placed. The annual installation of officers will take place in the K. of C. hall on Thursday evening, October 15.

Present Problem of North Main Street at County Hearing

Selectman Andrew McTernan, William C. Crowley and Thomas E. Rhodes were present yesterday at the public hearing held by the Massachusetts Highway Commission in the Salem courthouse. Chairman Williams presided at the meeting which was held for the purpose of receiving complaints from the various towns in the state as to the condition of their roads. This information is helpful to the commission in preparing their budget in December and it is probable that towns which are represented at this hearing will receive special consideration.

William C. Crowley and Thomas E. Rhodes both spoke at the hearing, stating conditions on North Main street. Many helpful suggestions as to the best way of presenting Andover's case in order to obtain state and county help were gained by the local men who attended the meeting.

Lectures by Mrs. Gilson to Begin in October

The first of a course of ten lectures by Mrs. Claude U. Gilson on "Current History" will be given in the November clubhouse on Friday, October 9, at 3.15. Tea with a social hour will follow the first meeting. The general public is invited to attend these lectures. Course ticket $1.00; single lecture 50 cents.

Federated Societies of Natural History Meet in Andover

The fall meeting of the New England Federated Societies of Natural History is being held in Andover at the Punchedard building today and tomorrow with the members of the local society as hosts.

This afternoon from two to six o'clock an exhibition of local collections open to the public is being held in the physical laboratory. The collections include lichens, arranged by Mrs. E. Ward Thompson, mosses by E. Ward Thompson, flora by M. E. Gutterston, birds by Miss Clara A. Putnam and Miss Florence Abbott, and spiders by Mr. Emerson of Boston.

At eight o'clock this evening Prof. Warren K. Moorehead will give an illustrated lecture on "The American Indian." Saturday morning from ten to twelve in Punchedard hall a meeting of the federation for the reports of the societies will be held. Principal N. C. Hamblin will speak on "Opportunities for the Study of Natural History in Andover."

Coffee and sandwiches will be provided by the local society at noon. Mrs. Frank M. Foster is chairman of the committee in charge of the lunch.

From half past one to four there will be a walk into the country for mushrooms and if a sufficient quantity is secured they will be cooked and served at the Punchedard building at half past five. Members of the Boston Mycological club are expected to participate in the walk.

The meetings will afford an unusual opportunity for the observation and study of nature and it is hoped that all members of the society will avail themselves of the privilege.

Sophomores Choose Officers

At a class meeting of the sophomores at Punchedard High School on Monday James Robinson, who has been a worker in all class activities since entering the high school, was elected president. William Crowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Crowley of Main street, was elected vice president; James Ronan was elected secretary, and Miss Emma Stevens, treasurer.

A number of social affairs are being planned by the sophomore class for this year, including the annual reception to the freshmen, which will be held in the Punchedard High School hall.

To Enter Harvard College

Albert W. Booth, who is about to enter Harvard college, was given a surprise party, at the Free church vestry, by the members of the X. B. K. Mr. Booth was presented with a gold fountain pen and a beautiful volume, by Mr. Cameron, the X. B. K. instructor. Mr. Booth, who was very much surprised, thanked them all for remembering him. He has the best wishes of his many friends for success in college.

Wedding

BIGELOW—KIMBALL

The most beautiful wedding of the season was that of Miss Marion Rich Kimball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Kimball of South Main street, and David Hardwick Bigelow, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. Victor Bigelow of Locke street, which took place at the South church Saturday evening at six o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father, the double ring service being used.

Previous to the ceremony Mrs. Lewis B. Dudley of Haverhill sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Voice That Breathed o'er Eden." To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by John A. Arnold, the bride party entered the church. The bride looked charming in a gown of white crepe satin embroidered with pearls. It had a court train and the tulle veil was held by a band of rose point lace and trimmed with rose point applique. The bride carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies and sweetheart roses.

Miss Dorothy Virginia Martin of Winchester, a classmate of the bride at Abbot, was the maid of honor, and Mrs. Carita Bigelow Moore of Wellesley, a sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Mrs. Moore is a graduate of Abbot Academy and of Wellesley. Other attendants of the bride were Miss Mildred Peabody of Boston, Abbot 1921; Helen Sinclair Bruno of Glen Ridge, N. J., Abbot 1921; Miss Dorothy Dunmore of West Newton, Pine Manor school; Ruth L. Emerson, Haverhill, Smith college 1924; Dorothy Hancock Tilton of Haverhill, Goucher college 1925; and Miss Louise A. Van Der Voort of Moline, Ill., Abbot 1921, and University of Illinois 1925. Pollard White of Lowell was the bride's page.

The best man was Victor Stoddard Bigelow, Yale 1927, and Donald Johnson Moore of Wellesley, Yale 1918, and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was head usher. Others who acted as ushers at the church and reception were Henry Fairhurst of New York City, Yale 1923; Edward Theodore Hetler of New York City, Yale 1923; George Macy Wheeler of Boston, Yale 1923; Winston Suss Wheeler of Wichita, Kansas, Yale 1923; Marshall Phil of Auburndale, Harvard 1923; and Harry Reinhard Marshall of West Haven, Conn., Yale 1923.

The bridesmaids' gowns were of chiffon: two of powder blue, two of peach, and two of orchid. The maids carried bouquets of asters, gladioli and other garden flowers.

The maid of honor was dressed in pinks colored chiffon velvet, trimmed with silver, and carried butterfly roses.

The matron of honor's dress was of apricot satin-back moire and she carried butterfly roses and larkspur.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Joseph C. Kimball, was gowned in kingfisher blue velvet trimmed with lace, while the mother of the groom, Mrs. E. Victor Bigelow, was in black chiffon velvet.

Following the ceremony there was a large reception at "Lawnalure," the residence of the bride's parents, which was attended by five hundred guests. Herbert Lowe of Boston directed his orchestra which played. The wedding supper was served by Cook of Boston in a marquee erected over the garden. Dancing was enjoyed by the young people on the tennis court, music being furnished by a hurdygurdy. The handsome decorations at the church and the home were done by C. A. Kaullbach of Haverhill.

The bride is a graduate of Abbot Academy with the class of 1921, and of the University of Illinois, and Mr. Bigelow is a Phillips Academy 1919 and Yale 1923 man. He is production manager in the tire department of the Converse Rubber Company.

After a wedding trip to the Adirondacks Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow will reside at "Lawnalure."

Telephone Poll Being Taken in Andover

Ballots have been sent out to Andover telephone subscribers on which they are asked by the Selectmen to vote whether they prefer the present telephone rates for Andover service with an extra charge of five cents for each Lawrence call, or a higher rate which will include Lawrence service.

If the majority vote for a change, a similar ballot will be taken in North Andover and Lawrence after which the matter will be referred to the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Massachusetts.

Carillon Recital Sunday

The program of the second of the Carillon recitals in the Sunday afternoon series being played on the Memorial Tower at Phillips Academy, at 3.30, by Dr. Pfatfeicher, Director of Music at the Academy, who has just returned from Belgium where he has been studying Carillon playing with Jef Denyn at Malines, the greatest of the Carillonneurs of the low-lands, will be as follows:

Prologue (from the Well-Tempered Clavier)
Loure (from the 3rd Cello Suite) Bach
Menuet Handel
Bourree Hand I
L'Angloise Fricco
Prelude in G Major Chopin
Minuet (from the Symphony in E flat) Chopin
Gypsy Rondo Haydn

There will be a recital every Sunday afternoon at 3.30 until the Sunday preceding Thanksgiving (inclusive).

Bowling League to Start Soon

The Knights of Columbus bowling league which for the past two seasons has provided the members of that organization with considerable pleasure and recreation will commence its third year shortly. An active bowling commission is to be selected, and the plans for the coming year placed in their hands. It is hoped that eight teams will be enlisted for the season's schedule.

The four alleys at the Knights of Columbus home have been thoroughly renovated this year, and they compare favorably with any in the vicinity. Expert workmen have had charge of the repairing which has occupied a period of several weeks. The alleys are now open for use by any of the members of the organization.

Early Morning Fire

Fire which damaged a new house being erected by George Dutton on Burnham road to the extent of about $2000, broke out Saturday morning about 1.30 and Box 68 was rung in, calling out the fire department to the blaze. According to Chief Charles Emerson, it is thought the fire started from spontaneous combustion in some rags the painters had left in the house.

The house is a new two-family house with upstairs and downstairs apartments, and a family was to have moved into one of the apartments next week. The painters were giving the finishing coats of paint to the inside woodwork. Two back rooms on each floor were burned and the rest of the house was damaged by smoke. The loss is covered by insurance.

Lines were attached to the hydrant on Enmore street and after over two hours' work the fire was extinguished.

Timothy Madden, permanent man at the central fire station, stepped on a nail in one of the boards and required medical attention.

Monday night, September 28, at 7.45 o'clock, in the vestry of the Baptist church, the regular meeting of the Andover Union will be held. The social committee have planned to make this meeting successful, and have something special in the way of entertainment. Other business was brought up, but was carried over until the next meeting. Arrangements for a baked bean supper were planned for the near future. The meeting then adjourned.

Free Church Endeavorers Install Officers

Rev. Alfred C. Church, pastor of the Free church, installed the officers of the Free church Christian Endeavor society, Sunday evening in the parish house. A large percentage of members were present. Miss Bertha R. Cuthill was installed as president; Albert Booth, vice president; Roger White, secretary; and Ruth Perry, treasurer.

The committee chairman for the ensuing year are Miss Jean MacLeish, social; William Barnett, lookout; Evelyn Mayer, prayer meeting; Ruth Saunders, publicity; and Helen Otis, Missionary. Mayhew P. Stickney was elected junior superintendent, and Herbert Otis is chairman of the junior committee.

Following the installation, reports from the delegates to the Northfield convention were read by Ruth Perry and Daisy Stevens. A piano solo was given by Miss Helen Bickell. A hot dog party has been planned for this evening, at the home of Milo H. Gould, Gould road. The committee in charge of arrangements are desirous that as many members as possible furnish automobiles to transport the gathering to the scene of the party. Autos will leave the church at seven o'clock. In case of inclement weather, the party will be held in the parish house.

South Church C. E. Notes

On Tuesday evening at seven o'clock the South church Christian Endeavor society held a business meeting. Much of importance was discussed, including plans for a fall social and ways of earning money. It was decided to leave the social in the hands of the social committee and the deciding of some means of raising money in the hands of the executive committee. An appropriation of $25 was made for the education of a boy in China. At the close of the meeting all joined in singing a few familiar hymns.

World War Veterans Attend Reunion at New Bedford

Among the nearly four hundred members of the 102nd Field Artillery who attended the two-day reunion held in New Bedford Saturday and Sunday were Clarence Eastwood, George M. Collins, George Napier, of this town, and Joseph Daley of Lawrence. Rev. Markham W. Stackpole, formerly of Andover, was also present.

Saturday evening was spent in greeting old friends, reviewing the days of the war, now a decade ago, which they had passed through together, and filling in the gaps since they had last met. On Sunday morning the boys were guests at the beautiful estate of Colonel Green and at noon there was a concert by the regimental band from Boston and a clam-bake at Sylvan Grove, followed by sports.

The 1926 reunion will be held at Boxford, with Joseph Daley of Lawrence, formerly of Andover, as chairman of the committee, and it is hoped that at that time there will be a much larger representation of Andover men.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Chief of Police Frank M. Smith and Mrs. Smith are enjoying their annual two weeks' vacation at Orleans.

Miss Bertha Burns, supervisor of the local telephone exchange, has returned from a vacation spent in Maine.

Mrs. E. McVey and Miss Amy McVey of Lowell will occupy one of the three apartments in the recently rebuilt Rickard house on Main street near Simpson's bridge.

Dr. John C. Bowker whose lectures are well known in Andover will appear in the White Fund course in Lawrence in November and give a new travelogue called The Seas of Noon dealing especially with marvelous Java and the empire of Insulinde. He plans to visit the East again in January and is always glad to give Andover people contemplating travel any needed suggestions on world tours.

Annual Tuesday Club Rummage Sale

Once again the Tuesday Club wishes to remind its many friends among the Andover housewives that the date for the Rummage Sale is drawing near.

The kindness and helpfulness of the friends is largely responsible for the success of these sales in previous years, and the Club most earnestly solicits the continuation of this kindness. Anything in the line of clothing, house-furnishings, books, shoes, bric-a-brac, toys, etc., finds a ready sale. Articles one person is glad to discard, some one else is glad to buy.

The proceeds of these sales are used entirely for charity, principally for the support and education of the little girl who is the club ward.

Anything remaining unsold at the conclusion of the sale is passed on to the Good-Will Industries in Lowell, so contributors may know that everything is useful.

As in other years the sale will be held at the Andover Guild and the date is Friday, October 23rd. The Guild will be open to receive contributions on Wednesday afternoon and evening, October 21, and all day Thursday, October 22. Any one wishing to have things collected will please notify Mrs. M. W. Colquhoun, tel. 260, or Mrs. Frank H. Hardy, tel. 69.

Obituaries

JOHN H. CHANDLER

Word has been received in Andover of the death on Thursday of John H. Chandler at his home in Worcester, aged eighty-four years.

For many years he made his home in Andover on Maple avenue. He was engaged in the express business and was proprietor of the newspaper stand now owned by O. P. Chase.

He is survived by two sons, Frederick Gray Chandler and J. Russell Chandler; by one daughter, Miss Florence Chandler of Worcester; and by eight grandchildren. His wife passed away in October of last year. Funeral services will be held from the late home, 18 Downing street, Worcester, tomorrow afternoon.

MRS. MARTHA HALE FROST

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Martha Hale Frost, wife of Judge George S. Frost, who passed away early Monday in the family home, 119 Locust street, Dover, N. H. She was eighty-four years of age.

Mrs. Frost was born in Dover on June 13, 1841, the daughter of Dr. Nathaniel and Mary Ann (Hale) Low. She spent practically all her life there. She is survived by her husband and four daughters: Mrs. James C. Sawyer and Miss Sarah L. Frost, both of Andover, and Misses Elizabeth R. and Margaret H. Frost of Dover, N. H.

Death

September 24, 1925, in Ballardvale, Chester Henry Glines, aged 15 years.

Daley Picked for Harvard Varsity

The Andover friends of Leo Daley were pleased to know that he made his appearance on the first team at Harvard yesterday. The varsity went through dummy scrimmage, with Daley one of the guards. His success of failure in a physics examination taken yesterday morning will determine whether or not he will be able to play on the team this season.

Daley is considered by those who know, the greatest football player at Harvard. He was former captain at Phillips Andover, and later leader of a Harvard Freshman team and is the greatest slashing, fighting lineman in Harvard today. He plays a wonderful game at either tackle or guard; and, if he is eligible to play this year, he is sure to be the outstanding bulwark of the entire Crimson front.

Rev. Alfred C. Church to Be Installed

The installation of Rev. Alfred C. Church as pastor of the Free Christian church of Andover will take place in the church on Thursday, October 15, and will take practically all of the day, part of which will be the private session in which Mr. Church will be examined by a board of ministers and part public, when there will be special services open to the whole congregation. Letters regarding the installation will be sent out next week, and the formal program announced.

Mr. Church came to Andover from New York at the beginning of the year, and has been in charge of the church since that time.

ROAD PROVES MENACE

of the skull and quadruple fractures of the leg, and failed to rally. The only means of identification was a plasterer's union card bearing the number, 40677, Union 25, Salem. Through this card his identification was made. A son, with whom he had been employed in Lawrence for the past few weeks but who had gone to Salem last week, was notified and claimed the body.

The corner which has been the scene of so many accidents this month is formed by the newly constructed Den Rock road which crosses the cement highway from Andover to North Andover.

Eli King of Marble avenue, operator of the taxicab in which Connors was riding when he was killed, Harris W. Spaulding of Haverhill, operator of the other machine, and Mrs. Charles Stackford of East Milton, operator of the Ford sedan in which Beverly Greene was riding when she sustained serious injuries, have been summoned to appear in court to answer to the charge of driving motor vehicles so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public.

The Board of Selectmen of North Andover are deeply concerned at the menace caused by the cross roads of Wilson's corner and Chairman Harry Rockwell is taking steps to enlist the aid of the state police in regulating traffic at this point.

Injured in Crash at Wilson's Corner

Beverly Greene, four, of 2 Buntun street, East Milton, suffering from injuries received when the automobile in which she was riding collided with another at Wilson's Corner and turned turtle. The accident occurred at half past ten Monday noon. The child was first taken to the Andover police station and then to the Lawrence General Hospital where her name was placed on the danger list.

The girl was in a Ford sedan operated by Mrs. Charles Stackford of the same address. Another Ford touring car operated by Anna-bell Rowe of 96 Chester street, Lawrence, was coming from Lawrence along the Den Rock road as the sedan passed the touring car at Wilson's Corner it struck the mudguard, skidded and turned turtle.

Neither driver was injured but little Beverly received severe lacerations of the face and scalp and numerous other injuries.

New York Newspaper Man Buried in South Church Yard

The Low plot in the Old South cemetery was opened Wednesday morning for the first time in over a quarter of a century, to receive the ashes of William E. Hutches, great-grandson of Major Joseph Low, and a well-known newspaper man of Paterson and New York. Another connection with an old Andover family lies in the fact that his grandmother was a cousin of Professor Stowe.

The untimely death of Mr. Hutches, cutting short the brilliant career of the young writer, came as the result of a fall from the third-story window of his hotel in New York on May 2nd of this year. He had recently returned from Paris where he was correspondent of the Daily News of New York City. His wife and mother survive him.

I. B. G. Elects Officers

The first meeting of the season of the I. B. G. of the South church, was held last evening. The officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, May Elander; vice president, Marjory West; secretary, Edith Johnson; treasurer, Eleanor Keith; chaplain, Annabelle Leake; guard, Helen D. Saunders.

Plans were made for the coming year.

Chamber of Commerce Urges Vaccination

The Chamber of Commerce is urging industries to interest their personnel in vaccination, to prevent the financial loss following an outbreak of smallpox. The Massachusetts Department of Public Health strongly backs the Chamber of Commerce in this effort. The Department issues the following statement:

"During the last three years a new severe form of smallpox, which kills from one-fourth to one-third of its victims, has appeared in the United States. Kansas City, Denver, and California were first hit. A year ago Duluth, Minneapolis, and Detroit had outbreaks. More recently it has appeared in Bridgeport, Conn., Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Washington, New York, New Jersey, Woonsocket, R. I., and Iowa. In each case following the development of a few cases wholesale vaccination at the rate of thousands a day have been resorted to. It is the duty of all health authorities to attempt to profit by the one hundred twenty deaths in Detroit and many more elsewhere and interest Massachusetts communities in wholesale vaccination before the scourge arrives."

"Boston was last visited in 1921-22, when there were two hundred sixty deaths. Twenty-two years before that there was an outbreak. From this experience we might expect an outbreak in the not distant future, as smallpox is always present in Canada and we are but a few hours away, it is easy to understand, unless we maintain a high percentage of immune persons in our population. For this reason the efforts of the Boston Chamber of Commerce should be supported by all persons interested in the industrial and humanitarian interests of Massachusetts."

South Church Notes

The South church Men's Club, has been fortunate in securing our Congressman, Mrs. John Jacob Rogers, to give the opening address of the season, Friday evening, October 10th. It will be Ladies' Night for the Club.

A Boy Scout leader for the South Church group of boys, 12 to 15 years of age, has been secured, named R. N. Brannan, who will meet the boys at the Church vestry on Saturday, October 3rd, at 3.30 p.m., prepared to give them all a start. Mr. Brannan took the first prize in the Lowell Y. M. C. A. course of training for the conduct of boys' work.

The rally day exercises of the Sunday school will be held at twelve o'clock on Sunday.

CROSS WORD PUZZLE

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the first black square above. No letters go in the black squares. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

"Dehorning" the Corners

It is surprising how quickly some people will take advantage when the bars are let down, comments the A. L. A.

Revolving the rule of blowing horns at corners is an example. Thousands of drivers are jubilant. Why, they just don't know—except it is one less regulation to obey.

Whether it makes for or against the accident hazard does not bother them. "Let the other fellow look out for himself. I'm able to watch my step" is the way they sum it up.

Outside of Massachusetts many motorists are under the impression that there is little if any law in force at intersections since horn blowing has been abolished. This is not the idea was to increase safety at corners, and it is now necessary to slow down the car and pass them at greatly reduced speed—eight miles per hour is the regulation. If this is done fewer accidents will result. The really careful driver will still find use for his horn at such places as well as reducing his speed.

The question arises, was using the horn at corners a mistake? Will being allowed not to use it make the fast driver slow down at such places, when he has always been in the habit of sounding a blast and shooting ahead with undiminished speed, believing he had done his full duty?

That is a question to be answered by results later on, says the A. L. A., but to us comes the fact that this newest regulation is not going to improve the reckless driver to any large extent nor keep the careful one from using his horn and slowing down at all dangerous and blind corners as heretofore. This law really only affects the careless driver, and it is to be feared, in a manner not to the advantage of pedestrians and automobile users. The police should be as watchful as ever—perhaps more so.

Another law that went into effect July 28th, last, and which carries a fine of $25 for violation states that no person shall drive an automobile within 300 feet of fire apparatus or park a car within 600 feet of a fire. Auto-ists must also immediately drive their cars to the right hand curb on the approach of fire apparatus and remain there till it has passed.

Work of the Federation of the Bird Clubs of New England for 1924-5

1. Assisted in securing the necessary appropriation from the State for the publishing of "Birds of Massachusetts," written by the president, Edward H. Forbush, State Ornithologist.

2. Assisted in securing an increase in salary for State Game Wardens, formerly greatly underpaid.

3. Assisted in the passage of a bill through the Legislature, making Penikese Island a permanent Bird Sanctuary. This island is the breeding ground for thousands of terns and a sanctuary for many other water-birds and shore-birds.

4. Assisted in the passage of a bill, drawn by the Federation and signed by the Lynn Bird Club, one of the clubs affiliated with the Federation, making Egg Rock, outside Lynn Harbor, a permanent sanctuary for seafowl. Gulls, murrelets, guillemots, cormorants, and probably other northern breeding species found a home here.

5. Purchased Ram Island off Mattapoisett and presented it to the Commonwealth for a permanent breeding ground for terns, and a haven for ducks and shore-birds during the hunting season.

6. Presented to the Commonwealth for a permanent sanctuary for ducks and marsh birds, Carr Island in the Merrimack river off Newburyport. This gift was made possible through the generosity of Mr. Isaac Sprague, and at his request this sanctuary is named in memory of his father.

7. Through the generosity of Dr. William Sturgis Bigelow, this Federation has posted Smith's Point, an island of Nantucket, where all shooting is stopped and the island made a home for terns, gulls, ducks, shore-birds, and wintering brant, and later expects to receive the title to this property as a gift.

8. Presented to the Commonwealth Tern Island, at Chatham, Mass. This is the third largest tern colony in the State and will be held forever as a sanctuary for these birds. This island was secured through gift to the Federation by John B. Paine, and will be named in his honor.

9. Through the liberality of Mrs. Roger W. Babson, this Federation has obtained for a nominal sum Milk Island, off Rockport, Mass., which will be dedicated for the State. It will be named the "Knight Bird Refuge," in memory of Mrs. Babson's father and mother.

10. Protected six colonies of terns on the Massachusetts coast with wardens whose salary was paid by this Federation.

11. Maintained for one year, as a memorial to Ernest Ingrid Baynes, the bird sanctuary which he founded at Meriden, N. H.

12. Called and conducted a Field Day and Bird Conference at Babson Park, Wellesley, Mass., to interest and stimulate bird lovers and clubs in bird protection.

13. Called and conducted a hearing at the State House where plans were made for a final attempt to save the Heath Hen from extinction by the employment of a special warden whose salary and expenses are paid by this Federation, and who will devote the greater part of his efforts to vermin control, as suggested by Mr. Slatterback, the Vermont Control expert for the State of Pennsylvania.

14. Called and conducted a Field Day and Bird Conference at Babson Park, Wellesley, Mass., to interest and stimulate bird lovers and clubs in bird protection.

15. Delivered twenty-five free lectures on birds.

Bird Census Takers

In all civilized countries where game is being protected there are trained men employed in taking the census of the various birds and other protected wild game. In the United States and Canada the preserve wardens do the work with the aid of competent helpers. The task is a patient, trying one. In Europe the count is actual, just as when a human census is taken, but in the United States it is largely by estimate. In this way reliable figures are obtained, as for instance the statement that in Peru may be found 4,000,000 lamias.

Advocates Raw Food

Professor Charles Richet, the famous French anatomist, reported to the Academy of Science (Paris) that carnivorous animals such as the dog, cannot live long when their diet is restricted to cooked meat. His experiments show that the same animals thrive and develop great strength when fed with raw meat.

His latest experiments were made on fish fed with meat. The results were the same as with animals. He says he has demonstrated that cooking destroys vitamins and modifies the muscular albumenoids so as to make them difficult to assimilate.

Telephones in China

The four largest cities in China—Shanghai, Peking, Canton and Tientsin—with an aggregate population of approximately 4,500,000, have fewer telephones than the single American city of Portland, Oregon, although there are fifteen times as many people in the four Chinese cities as there are in Portland.

State Has Many Blind

New Hampshire has more blind people in proportion to population than any other of the states.

How Efficient is Neighborhood Toll Service?

Neighborhood Toll Service has not just cracked the laboratory egg.

It has been in actual operation in this territory for months, expanding with the set-up of new apparatus and the training of our forces. Now it is ready in the five northern New England states. It is reasonably efficient else we would not suggest its commercial use.

It is not perfect.

Like local telephone service, which it resembles, Neighborhood Toll Service is subject to human and mechanical error, and to conditions beyond any control.

There will be some "wrong numbers." There will be some "cut-offs." There will be some "don't answers." There will be some "busys,"—a few more than in local service because one may be met with at several points along the toll line.

But on the whole, there is efficiency approximating that of local service. There is the same simplicity. There is equal certainty. Clearly, there cannot be quite the speed of local calls; but none the less this is the fastest toll service you have ever known.

New England Telephone and Telegraph Company

Totality

The little fellow at the corner, selling papers, looked so forlorn and wistful that the passing stranger couldn't forbear speaking to him.

"What's your name, sonny?" he asked.

"Jim," was the reply.

"Just Jim?"

"Well, what's your father's name?"

"Ain't got no father."

"Well, who's your mother—brothers—sisters?"

"Ain't got none."

"No one at all?" asked the man in pity.

"Nope," the boy answered. "When you seen me you done seen all there is of us."—American Legion Weekly.

Coast Town Opens Novel Mountain Amphitheater

San Bernardino, Cal.—A capacious and probably unique natural amphitheater, distinctive in its setting 7,000 feet above sea level in the wooded heart of the San Bernardino mountains, was opened recently with a musical program novel in itself.

This huge outdoor theater can accommodate 50,000 persons. Instead of one stage there are many. They are composed of platforms of table-shaped rocks artistically placed by the hand of nature about the large amphitheater. On one, hundreds of feet above the audience, a violinist, standing in the shafts of colored lights blended with the moonbeams through the branches of great trees on the mountainside above him, rendered music from the masters. From another, across a ravine on a precipitous mountainside, a string quartet played softly while choruses sang from half-hidden caverns.

Varicolored lights played about the amphitheater created a queer effect.

Read as Death Beckoned

A reader asks whether we know which work of Voltaire it was that was found on Sargent's desk. We don't. But it may interest him and others to know that Tennyson died with his Shakespeare open at "Cymbeline"; Macaulay when he was found dead in his library had a number of the Cornhill magazine before him, open at the first chapter of Thackeray's "Loved the Widow"; Mark Twain with almost the last effort of his mind turned to Carlyle's "French Revolution";—W. Orton Tewson in the New York Evening Post.

Right to Salute Bride

Kissing the bride appears to have been an old Scottish custom, according to which "the person who presided over the marriage ceremony uniformly claimed it as his inalienable privilege to have a smack at the lips of the bride immediately after the performance of his official duties," for it was cannily believed that the happiness of every bride lay involved in the pastoral kiss.—Doris Blake in Baltimore Sun.

SHAWSHEEN WINS TWO

Indians Astonish Soccer World by Pining Defeats on Fall River and Brooklyn on Consecutive Days

Shawsheen astounded the soccer world last week-end and delighted its supporters by scoring impressive wins over two of the strongest teams in the country, Fall River and Brooklyn Wanderers, in successive days and as a result lifted its standing in the American near the top.

The first victory came last Saturday afternoon against the league champions, Fall River, the Indians winning 4-3. Two weeks previous the Marksmen turned back Shawsheen 4-1, in an exhibition game, and only ardent rooters of the Greater Lawrence team figured Shawsheen an outside chance.

George Wallace's team was a different proposition in the league game. He had secured two Fall River stars in Wilson and Cook and with a rearranged front and intermediate lines Fall River went down heavily.

The visitors scored twice before Shawsheen got going. Then came the change that overwhelmed Fall River, who had the rare experience in the blue's long drive of having four goals in succession scored against them. MacGowan, Smith, Carrie and again MacGowan made Shawsheen's dream of beating the champions, come true. Fall River scored again but it was of no account as Shawsheen was unbeatable. Combined play and a winning spirit gave Sam Marks, an unexpected defeat.

The second decisive win came the following day at Brooklyn, where Shawsheen scored a 3-1 victory over the Wanderers. Few expected Shawsheen to defeat the Brooklynites on their ground, particularly after a strenuous game the previous day and an all-night journey. Brooklyn was rested, having no game scheduled for Saturday.

But Shawsheen came through and again dumfounded the carpers who can see no good thing in Shawsheen. Two changes were made in the team. Andy Nixon, who was injured against Fall River, stepped down and Stradan, Olympic team center, took his place. Tommy Murdock kept goal and according to Brooklyn critics gave a marvelous exhibition.

Although Brooklyn outplayed Shawsheen in the open, Shawsheen got the goals and these win games. Stradan opened the scoring and Purvis equalized. At half time the Indians led 2-1. The second half yielded but one goal and Shawsheen got it. This victory was deserved and the Brooklyn sporting writers gave the Shawsheen team great credit for their fine exhibition.

All over the American league circuit, Shawsheen's two wins, and the national champions are ready for all comers either at Balmoral Field or on foreign fields.

Score: Shawsheen 3, Wanderers 1. Goals made by Stradan 2, Cook, Curtis. Referee: J. Coutts. Linesman: D. Morrison and A. Nixon. Time: 45-minute halves.

The big game locally is scheduled for tomorrow, when Shawsheen tackles Boston at Walpole street, Boston. These teams are the keenest sort of rivals and Shawsheen would rather win from Boston than any other team. A record attendance is predicted.

Seventeen Auto Deaths Last Week

Boston, September 21.—Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles, in his report for the week ending September 18, says that there were seventeen persons killed in the week, the same number as in the week before and seven more than in the same period last year. The registrar announces that 109 persons were convicted of operating while under the influence of liquor, 31 more than in the week before. Of these, 106 were in the lower courts and three in Superior Courts, six were admitted to jail, all from lower courts, three persons were convicted for the second time within six weeks in the lower courts of operating while under the influence of liquor, two were given jail sentences and appealed, and one was committed to jail. Licenses and registrations suspended or revoked last week numbered 485, or 250 more than in the preceding week, and 40 more than in the same period last year. Of these, 131 were for driving after drinking intoxicating liquor.

Celebrated Inn

A memorial tablet was recently unveiled at Bath, England, to mark the site of the historic White Hart Inn which Dickens introduced into "Pickwick Papers." It was a famous coaching house in the Seventeenth century. It was at the White Hart Inn that the poets Thomas Moore, George Crabbe and W. L. Bowles often met; and there, also, Sir Edward Bulwer-Lytton and Benjamin Disraeli, in their early days, appeared at dinner in magnificent attire, including black velvet tights and silk stockings.

Lights Fight Moths

Searchlights are being used in Germany and South Poland to save the forests from swarms of caterpillars, the larvae of a species of moth. When the lights were set up at night in the woods, millions of the insects, attracted by the powerful rays, were cremated when they flew into the incandescent carbons of the arc lamps, which were not sheltered by globes.

PERSONALS

Daylight saving will end Sunday at 2 a.m. Do not forget to set timepieces back an hour.

Miss Louise Dumont, popular clerk at the Balmoral Pharmacy, has resumed her duties after a two weeks' vacation.

Charles Frederickson will play left halfback for the Lowell Textile football team when it meets Bates college on Saturday.

The Andover Andover Square and Compass club will hold a stag whist party tomorrow night in the club-house at eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, of North Main street, who have been spending the summer in Scotland and England, are expected to arrive in Boston Sunday on the S. S. Scythia of the Cunard line.

First Frost Kills

The first frost came Wednesday morning and was a killer. The thermometer registered 29 degrees on the average and went as low as 20 degrees on Lowell street.

Much damage was done to vegetables and flower gardens, and Playdon, the Boist, was a heavy sufferer. Many residents, with garden plots, took the necessary precautions, and as a result their plants are blooming as ever.

To Conduct Fire Prevention Contest

Fire prevention week is appointed for the week of October 4-10. In order to stimulate interest and educate young people in the necessity of fire prevention, the local insurance office has offered seven prizes totalling $10.00, for the best essays on "Fire Prevention," written by pupils in the seventh and eighth grades of the public schools.

The essays, of approximately five hundred words in length, must have been received at the insurance office on or before the evening of October 9. The judges will be George Hinckley, manager of the Mutual Adjustment Bureau, Boston; Edmond Sanders, vice president of the Merchants and Farmers Insurance Company, Worcester; Charles F. Danforth, secretary of the Mutual Fire Insurance association, Boston.

The judges will have their decision on (1) Arguments for fire prevention, (2) General appearance and neatness, (3) Grammar and spelling. The first prize will be $3.00, the second $2.00, with five other prizes of $1.00 each.

It is hoped that this contest will emphasize individual responsibility in the prevention of fire, with its appalling loss of life and property.

The losses since January 1, 1925, amount to $262,395,000, as compared with $237,896,190 in 1924. The average loss per day is $1,020,992. During the year 15,000 persons have been burned to death and 17,000 have been injured by fire.

Woman Ranks With Man in Intellectual Force

There is a small group of scientists to whom women owe an everlasting debt of gratitude. These are the psychologists who have produced the mental yardstick—the intelligence test—and have thus furnished the fuller sex with the final convincing argument to refute the ancient and odious charge that women have less brains than men.

The intelligence tests have given the scientific answer to the question: Who are more intelligent, men or women?

And the answer is so conclusive that it leaves no room for appeal or evasion. The test scores of hundreds of thousands of children and young people of both sexes in schools and colleges have furnished the evidence. One noted psychologist declares that according to numerous tests he has made on school children under fourteen years the girls actually score one or two points higher than the boys.

Still another point of difference between the sexes, as revealed by the tests, is that women's scores do not fluctuate either above or below the average nearly so much as do men's. The very high grades—also the very low ones—are generally made by men. Nature always equalizes. And when the grand average is drawn we discover that the ancient notion of masculine mental superiority is a hoax.

The extremes reached by men in the tests may perhaps give us the clue to another reason why the world has produced a few men geniuses, but no women—and why the institutions for the feeble-minded contain more men than women. It is from the highest levels that the genius comes, and from the lowest the nut. And, as we have just learned, both of these levels contain more men than women. The fallacy of the past has been to consider these few intellectual prodigies as samples of the whole male half of the race. We must, therefore, conclude that the woman given to our father Adam was not only bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh—as the theologians tell us—but also brain of his brain. The sons of Adam and the daughters of Eve are possessed of the same intellectual equipment.—Kingsley Grey in the Designer Magazine.

Musical Bargain

John McCormack, the famous singer, receives many letters from aspirants to musical fame.

At a dinner in New York Mr. McCormack read a letter that had been sent him under the erroneous impression that he taught voice production. The letter, dated the Middle West, ran:

"Friend John: Please let me know your lowest rates for full correspondence course in voice production. I have no voice, but as the efficiency engineer business is not what it was represented to me to be in the International Efficiency School of Correspondence, I desire to abandon same in favor of grand opera, and if you can produce me a fine tenor voice I will be glad to pay, in addition to regular charges, a cash bonus and a generous percentage of salary receipts for a term of years."

WOMAN'S CLUB TEA

First Social Event of the Season Attracts Attendance of Eighty Members—Opening Meeting October 5

The Shawsheen Village Woman's Club held an informal get-together Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Alexander Livingston of 388 North Main street, chairman of the hospitality committee.

It was a very enjoyable event and over eighty members and friends were present. The decorations of roses and larkspur, tastefully arranged, were very attractive and brought forth much praise.

The Page Mayonnaise Dressing Co. of Lowell catered and served punch, biscuit, gelatine salad with mayonnaise, shortbread, cake and chocolate.

The first regular meeting of the club will be held in Balmoral Hall on Monday evening, October 5.

Skeas in Bowling Finals

One of the semi-finals of the Shawsheen Bowling Green Club tournament for the Burns Challenge cup has been rolled and James Skeas qualified for the finals, by defeating James Koss in a close and exciting game 21-18. Skeas was holder of the cup in 1923.

The other semi-finalists are George Fyfe, present champion, and Robert Williams.

Shawsheen Community Church

The Shawsheen Village Community church will resume its regular evening services in Balmoral hall Sunday, October 4, at 7.30 o'clock.

The committee in charge of the services is undecided whether or not the people of the village really want these services continued and whether they will receive sufficient attendance and support. There is some talk of discontinuing them, although Sunday school will go on as usual. This question will be brought up for discussion at the meeting on October 4, and the committee hopes that everyone who wants to see the services continued will be on hand that evening.

It is planned to resume Sunday school in Balmoral hall on October 4 at 9.30 a.m. The Superintendent A. M. Wade would like to get in touch with two or three people to teach in the school. A teacher to take charge of the kindergarten class is especially needed. There will be a meeting of the Sunday school teachers at the home of Mr. Wade, 4 Carlsbrooke street, on Tuesday evening, at 7.30 o'clock.

Would-Be Librarians

Not "Up" in History

Nearly thirty persons, some of them college graduates, applied for a certain position in the Cincinnati public library, but only eight scored a passing mark in the examination.

The Pathfinder's poetry machine and its relation to poetic licenses must have been uppermost in the mind for the candidate who said that one of the grunts of high office bestowed on a poet laureate was "certain privileges called poetic license."

Another candidate defined Sleepy Hollow as a "hollow in Kentucky that has become the setting of several books."

Marco Polo, according to one, "was the first man to try and reach the North pole."

"Before the break with England, Henry Clay uttered those immortal words, 'Give me liberty or give me death,'" wrote another.

Madame Curie was credited with being founder of the Christian Science church. "Robinson Crusoe" was said to have been the work of Robert Louis Stevenson.

The handwriting on the wall, to one young woman, referred to the last supper.

A young man said Christ was tried before Ananias.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Lotteries Have Firm

Hold on All Italians

The national sport of Italy is the lottery. It is the popular sport of all classes. There are many kinds of lotteries, but the one which seems to hold the popular favor is the weekly one. The charm of this weekly lottery lies in the fact that the buyer of a ticket can play a hunch. Since all Italians are superstitious, it is only natural that each has a particular "hunch" on the winning numbers in the lottery.

The eight largest cities in the kingdom are listed and after each city five numbers appear. Should anyone have an idea that Naples would draw 4, 18, 87, 34, 52, it is simplicity itself to back your hunch. You simply walk into any agency and write your own ticket. The numbers do not have to be arranged in the same sequence as drawn. For example, in the case above cited if the purchaser had selected the numbers in inverse order, or in any other order he would still win the maximum purse.—Detroit News.

Tested Patrons' Hospitality

Stepping into a taxicab the other day, says the Paris Intrinsigant, a fare discovered a package of chocolate lying on the seat. Without hesitation he put it in his pocket, paid the chauffeur, adding a good pourboire, and was about to depart when the driver called out: "What about my chocolate?"

"Your chocolate?" queried the client, greatly taken aback. Then the chauffeur explained that he was testing the honesty of his fares, and of eleven whom he had carried that morning only two had informed him that a package of chocolate was lying on the seat. The two honest folk were a sergeant leaving for Morocco and a milliner's messenger girl. "Honest people are scarce," said the philosophic chauffeur.

Excellent Idea Is Umbrella "Exchange"

Brussels appears to be the only city which has a well-organized umbrella-borrowing bureau. The annual subscription is low, but if every umbrella-user were to join such a society, its income would be enormous.

The idea is rather similar to that in force at the British museum, National gallery and other public institutions, where you are required to deposit your "gamp" before being allowed to go round the galleries. You get a ticket of metal, or a bone disk, which will redeem your umbrella at any time; only, in the case of the umbrella exchange, the umbrella is not your own, but the property of the society.

Each member, on paying his subscription, receives a token, usually of metal stamped with an index number, which he carries in his pocket instead of an umbrella in his hand. When caught by the rain, all he has to do is to go to one of the society's agencies, which are tobacco shops, restaurants and big stores, and hand over the token, to be immediately provided with an umbrella.

When the rain ceases the borrower deposits his umbrella in the next agency he happens to pass, and in exchange receives another counter.

Rose Bushes That May Be Classed as Franks

As a rule rose bushes are not classed with yews and oaks among the long-lived and ancient, but a rose tree on the wall of Hildesheim cathedral, Prussia, can be traced back with certainty to the Eleventh century. Its main trunk has a thickness of 20 inches, and the branches spread over the wall to a height of 25 feet.

The castle of Chillon, on Lake Geneva, in which the famous "Prisoner" of Byron's poem was interned, has a very large rose tree of unknown age, and in the Marine gardens at Toulon there is one that spreads across a space of 80 feet by 15 feet, and which has been known to bear 50,000 blooms at the same time!

The biggest rose tree in Europe is in the Wehrle gardens in Friesburg, Germany. Its stock is a wild rose on which a "tea rose" was grafted 40 years ago. Today the bush is 120 feet high.

WHAT WE LEARNED

Dealers all over the country keep talking about the "Used Car Problem." They seem to regard it as a sort of nightmare. We learned long ago that the biggest part of the problem consists of getting people to realize that all Used Cars and all Used Car dealers aren't alike. And it isn't a problem at all!
